For immediate release

Vancouver Kids Fashion Week S/S 19 Announces Show Dates

Vancouver, BC -Vancouver Kids Fashion Week (VKFW) is proud to announce its 5th season taking place on September 22nd and 23rd, 2018 at Vancouver Art Gallery's ʂxʷłənəq Xwtl'e7énk Square (formerly Vancouver Art Gallery's North Plaza/ Georgia Plaza) in the heart of downtown Vancouver, during Vancouver Fashion Week September 17th -23rd, 2018.

Open to families and attendees of all ages, the two-day event dedicated to showcasing children's fashion in a fun and creative platform will feature national and international designers. Adorable mini models wearing the latest in kidswear for the Spring/Summer 19 season, will once again highlight VKFW's support for Canadian talent and childrenswear designers on an international scale.

This season's line-up of hand-picked childrenswear talent from Canada and around the world includes first-time showers AMORIKI (Mexico), EEPPLE (Korea) and COCO AU LAIT (Spain/Mexico), along with local designers JOY & JOA. Please see the website for the full designer line-up.

VKFW has partnered with BC Children's Hospital Foundation (BCCHF) in an effort to recognize children in need and will donate a portion of ticket sales to the Foundation.

Highlights for this season include a hands-on workshop in partnership with the Vancouver Art Gallery. Participants will experiment with natural materials and learn creative ways to transform spaces, fashion, clothing and movement, with inspiration from Haruko Okano's artwork Intersistere (2018), part of the exhibition 'Ayumi Goto and Peter Morin: how do you carry the land?', on view until October 28, 2018.

"Inspiring and educating the next generation in the world of fashion was our goal when we first started Vancouver Kids Fashion week...allowing them a stage to enter the world of design and explore their creativity and passion." says Jamal Abdourahman, producer and founder of Vancouver Fashion Week.

Vancouver Fashion Week, entering its 32nd season, has become the fastest growing fashion week in the world, adding onto this success with the natural expansion of Vancouver Kids Fashion Week, which started in September 2016. The ever-growing talent in youths was the inspiration driving the launch of this new platform, aiming to highlight and leverage kids designers on an international scale.
